Millennium Communities Program Information

Guidelines:

1. Applicants must address all of the following questions and send two copies to their respective intergovernmental association (except governors) or Bureau of Indian Affairs. See the list of associations at the bottom of the page.
2. Double space answers for questions one, two and three on a separate sheet of paper.
3. Each response should be no more than 250 words. Every sheet of paper submitted must have the name of the community and the state at the top of the page.
4. If the community has documentation to support its submission, such as press releases, newspaper articles etc., the accompanying material also should be clearly marked at the top of the page or on the front cover of a multi-page piece.

Questions:

1. Describe how the community will reach out to a broad segment of people and organizations to involve them in their millennium activities.
2. Describe how the community will design a planning structure to develop its millennium program. (How many people the community envisions will be involved, how often they will meet, etc.)
3. Describe how the community plans to carry out the national millennium theme: "Honor the Past -- Imagine the Future." (Please list the projects you currently have planned or are considering pursuing along with a time-table of major events/activities.)
4. Check what category/categories of program(s) the community may be interested in pursuing as it moves forward with its planning: (Check as many areas as apply.)
